To whom it may concern,

Cathedral of the Palms Church is a Texas non-profit Religious Corporation within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Cathedral of the Palms Church is supported by contributions donated by church members and attendees. The expense to maintain and support the church is significant as we are currently struggling to pay the bills. Our program, "Faith Talk", is a local un-syndicated program serving our local community. Providing closed captions on this video programming would add to the financial hardship and significant difficulty that the church is experiencing.

Cathedral of the Palms Church continuously requests additional contributions for this broadcasting cost but these requests have not been fruitful. The video programming distributor has also negotiated the lowest possible fee, but the funding is still not available. In addition, the church has obtained cost information (bids) from closed captioning software companies. This cost would be prohibitive to our program costs.

Cathedral of the Palms Church respectfully requests closed captioning exemption for our program, "Faith Talk," due to financial hardship. Through our program, "Faith Talk," we continuously strive to better serve the community.

Enclosed are Cathedral of the Palms Church financial statements for 2011, Certificate of Formation and closed captioning software cost information.

Sincerely,

David Farjardo
Business Administrator

IMPORTANT CLOSED CAPTIONING INFORMATION

November 2, 2011

Dear Media Director,

The FCC's recent decision to overturn your closed captioning exemption certainly creates new factors to consider. Production costs and air time purchases are already difficult mountains to climb. Now, you're facing another giant peak in figuring out what to do about closed captioning.

By losing the exemption from the FCC, there are many financial hurdles to consider. Purchasing captioning software and encoding equipment alone can be insurmountable. Of course, you'll also have to spend time figuring out the captioning process itself as well as FCC regulations. Then, creating the captions will eat up your time and constantly push you up against tight deadlines. Wrestling with these costs and issues will leave you feeling like your only option is to go off the air.

As a producer of religious television content myself, I have firsthand experience dealing with the financial burden and questions facing you right now. I also understand and believe in the purpose and significance of your television program. That's why I want to help you move forward.

The FCC's decision can be intimidating, but my company can help you eliminate that stress. We've helped many producers save weeks of production time and thousands of dollars with our unique eCaptioning process. Simply put, I know that we can save you time and money. Plus, we do all the extra work to keep you compliant with the FCC.

I'd love to discuss how my company can help you. We are committed to finding the most cost-effective solution for you. In fact, I will personally give you a special ministry discount. Simply mention this letter when you call and you'll receive discounted pricing as low as $167 per half-hour program! Be sure to contact me soon, because I can only extend this offer to a limited number of clients.

Providing captions can be very beneficial to the mission of your organization. I believe this is truly a great opportunity for us to help you strengthen the message of your ministry. Millions of Americans are hard of hearing. Closed captioning will make your program more accessible to both the deaf and elderly communities and is available to you at a fraction of the cost of air time and other production expenses.

Remember to mention the special ministry discount when you call. I look forward to talking to you soon!

Sincerely,

Adam R. Grover

Software vs. Service

Software vs. Service

CPC makes closed captioning software that lets you do all of your closed captioning in-house, but we also can do your closed captioning as a service.

Software

Having closed captioning software in-house gives you the most flexibility and saves time and money in the long run, especially if you need closed captions frequently. It is also vital if you produce videos with a very fast turnaround (1 day or less), or if you frequently edit or convert videos that were already closed captioned. The software pays for itself after as little as 10 hours of closed captioning or subtitling. More about Software.

Service

If your need for closed captioning or subtitling is infrequent, or if you simply do not have the time or the resources to do your own closed captioning, then our service department can do all of the work for you. Since we use the industry's most advanced software, we can closed caption your video with a quick turnaround and the lowest prices, while supporting the latest e-Captioning workflows. Price Comparison ChartPrice ListContact Us

Welcome to Custom Captions!

Your premier provider of a full range of post-production closed captioning services for video production and broadcast media.

Paying too much for closed captioning?

Is $6 per minute a good price? Is $8? How about $10? $15? $20?

It all depends on what you actually get!

What extra charges are you paying for?

Minimum amounts?

Set-up fees?

Tape charges?

At Custom Captions we provide closed captions and subtitles at LOW, easy-to-understand rates. We charge a flat rate-per-minute of video time, which INCLUDES ALL COSTS. Simply multiply our rate by the number of minutes in your video to determine your final cost.

Until now, only the major closed captioning houses have included all services in truly flat-rate fees! (Those rates are in the $30 to $35 range.)

Do you need open or closed captions?

Open captions are always visible. Closed captions are a selected option from TV menus.

Do you captions that "pop-on" or "roll-up"?

Pop-up formatting shows individual captions popping onto the screen and off again, making room for new ones. Closed captions are placed under the different speakers.

Roll-up captions show individual lines coming onto the screen, then rolling up, making room for new text. Roll-up captions are typically used for real-time news, sports, and distance-learning educational programs.

Subtitles

Subtitles are placed down the center of the screen. Sound effects are not identified and speakers are not generally identified.

Do you need to choose between good quality and low prices?

Your audience will always choose quality, easy-to-read captions.

Your accountant will always choose low prices. With Custom Captions, you can have both! You can afford great captioning. One in ten (approximately 25 million) Americans are hearing impaired. 25% of American television sets use closed captions daily.

Do you know about Disabled Access Tax Credit?

Small businesses can claim tax credits for making video accessible to deaf and hard of hearing people with captions. The IRS has a Form 8826, the Disabled Access Credit, for this purpose. It can be downloaded on the web at the IRS web site by scrolling down the list of choices until Form 8826 is reached. Click here to download Form 8826.
